

House Resolution No. 3255

Whereas, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives hold in high esteem those Show-Me State educators who admirably ensure that students obtain the knowledge, skills, and experiences necessary to become lifelong learners, involved citizens, and future societal leaders; and

Whereas, Janet L. Adams of Berger, Missouri, has attained considerable distinction as a speech implementer in the Gasconade County R-I School District, a vocational calling that she will draw to a close on May 21, 2007, after nine years of service; and

Whereas, Janet Adams brings to her classroom a wealth of educational expertise derived from earlier employment as a physical education and health teacher at Higginsville High School, physical education teacher at the Colorado School for the Deaf and Blind, and physical education teacher at the B.W. Shepherd State School for the Severely Handicapped; and

Whereas, in addition to her classroom activities, Janet Adams has served as a Special Olympics coach and as a state-appointed officer of the Colorado Grand Chapter of the Order of the Eastern Star; and

Whereas, Physical Education Teacher of the Year in 1986, Janet Adams is a sign language interpreter, Camp Director for the Special Populations Recreation Department of Colorado Springs, and member of Alpha Gamma Delta Sorority, the Hermann Community Christian Church, the Central Committee for the Hermann Area Crusade for Cancer, Phi Delta Kappa International Professional Educational Association, and many other organizations related to her interests; and

Whereas, Janet Adams is justifiably proud also to be known as the beloved wife of Robert Adams; loving mother of Brian and Nikki Adams; and grandmother of Chloe Noel; and

Whereas, it is fitting and proper that the Missouri House of Representatives should pause in its diverse legislative endeavors in order to recognize such outstanding Missouri citizens as Janet Adams at momentous times in their lives:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-fourth General Assembly, join unanimously to applaud the personal and professional accomplishments garnered down through the years by Janet Adams and to convey to her this legislative body's most heartfelt best wishes as she partakes of the special opportunities and pleasures traditionally associated with the golden years of retirement; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution for presentation to Janet L. Adams of Berger, Missouri.
